Crawford's Global Technical Services™ Division Welcomes John Valeriote and Ashley Misurka

TORONTO (Sept. 27, 2017) – Crawford & Company® (Canada), Inc. announce the addition of John Valeriote and Ashley Misurka to Crawford's Global Technical Services™ (GTS™) division. The Crawford® GTS team in Canada includes more than 75 highly technical claims adjusters who specialize in large or complex losses and the addition of Valeriote and Misurka further strengthens the team.

“As well-known claims professionals with extensive industry experience, the capabilities of John and Ashley in commercial property, casualty, professional liability and other disciplines not only complements but elevates Crawford's expertise in these spaces,” said Jim Eso, senior vice president, property & casualty for Crawford & Company (Canada) Inc. “They are welcomed additions to our team.”

John Valeriote

Valeriote has over 25 years of industry experience, specializing in multi-line, complex claims. As a claims professional, he has held roles in large insurance carriers and independent adjusting firms, in positions ranging from senior field adjuster and claims manager to executive general adjuster. Complementing Valeriote's professional expertise is his educational background, which includes a Fellow Chartered Insurance Professional (FCIP) designation, a Financial Risk Management (FRM) designation and a Bachelor of Arts degree from McMaster University. Valeriote will lead the Crawford Canada property appraisal practice and handle complex claims as needed.

Ashley Misurka

With over eight years of industry experience, Misurka is a well-rounded claims professional with a strong technical background. She holds the Chartered Insurance Professional (CIP) and Canadian Risk Management (CRM) designations. In her new role, Misurka will manage Crawford Canada's newly established property appraisal and claims services branch.

“John and Ashley both have strong professional backgrounds supported by highly technical skills,” said Paul Hancock, vice president, Global Technical Services (Canada). “They will do great things at Crawford and we are happy to have them join our team.”
